

i am firmly AGAINST allowing increased ownership of our airwaves to companies like clearchannel- we need greater diversity. Clearchannel and similar interests are dumbing down the media. They are only concerned with making money-not serving the public, who own these American airwaves.